The Lean Startup Sprint is a free two-week program for you to develop your startup idea into a proof-of-concept. You will immerse yourself in a dynamic and collaborative environment with like-minded people where you will build a prototype, validate your ideas and draft your sustainable business model. You will meet a startup coach and receive expert guidance with individual recommendations for your next steps to work on.

After completing the Lean Startup Sprint, participants have the opportunity to apply for our incubator, which offers a collaborative workspace, personalized coaching and access to a wide range of workshops and events.

What you get:

- Two weeks of co-working at Startup Incubator Berlin
- Practical help and advice (no lectures) and a workbook
- Startup coaching from experienced advisors and experts
- Hands-on support with prototyping and testing (e.g. hardware, apps)
- Integration into our startup community at Rohrdamm 88, Berlin-Siemensstadt
