

14th International Conference on Public Administration

Theme “Healthy Cities” Contributions

Berlin School of Economics and Law

Badensche Straße 52, 10825 Berlin
Campus Schöneberg | Building B | Rooms 4.01 - 4.04

24 October 2019

12.30pm	welcome and registration
1.00pm	Opening of the Conference by Prof Dr Andreas Zaby President Berlin School of Economics and Law Prof Dr Robert Knappe Dean Department of Public Administration, Berlin School of Economics and Law Prof Dr Frank Naert Vice Dean International Affairs, Ghent University Prof Dr David Birdsell Dean Marxe School of Public & International Affairs, Baruch College Prof Dr Hongbin Liao Dean School of Public Administration, Southwestern University of Finance and Economics
1.30 - 2.15pm	Prof Dr Wenbin Zang Southwestern University of Finance and Economics (SWUFE) „Social Health Insurance and Price Discrimination - Empirical Evidence from Chengdu City“
2.20 - 3.05pm	Benjamin Trinks, MA (Nonprofit-Management and Public Governance) Berlin School of Economics and Law (HWR) “The Challenges of fast growing Cities using the Example of Berlins rapid Population Growth and its High Investments into the Educational Sector”
3.05 - 3.35pm	coffee break
3.35 - 4.20pm	Assoc Prof Zhiyong Huang Southwestern University of Finance and Economics (SWUFE) “Living environmental risk factors of falls among Chinese older adults”
4.25 - 4.55pm	Dr Patria de Lancer Julnes Marxe School of Public & International Affairs, Baruch College “A Suggested Model for Integrating Community Indicators with Performance Measurement. Challenges and Opportunities”
5.00 - 5.45pm	Götz Müller, MA (Public Administration) Berlin School of Economics and Law (HWR) “Gentrification and Segregation: Causes, Analysis, Effect of Control Measures”
6.30pm	conference dinner

14th International Conference on Public Administration

Theme “Healthy Cities” Contributions

Berlin School of Economics and Law

Badensche Straße 52, 10825 Berlin
Campus Schöneberg | Building B | Rooms 4.01 - 4.04

25 October 2019

9.00am	arrival
9.30 - 10.30am	Prof Dr Frank Naert Ghent University “Governance of SDG 11 in Belgium - A multilevel and multisector approach”
10.30 - 11.00am	coffee break
11.00 - 11.45am	Prof Dr Dries Verlet Ghent University “Subjective well-being as a policy indicator. How to measure and how can policy makers make a difference?”
11.50am - 12.35pm	Prof Dr Carolin Hagelskamp Berlin School of Economics and Law (HWR) „Participatory Budgeting in New York City is Associated with Increased Investments in Schools, Street and Traffic Improvements, and Public Housing“
12.35 - 1.30pm	lunch
1.30 - 2.00pm	Daisy Flores, MA (International Affairs) Marxe School of Public & International Affairs, Baruch College “How New York State counterbalances Federal Immigration Policies”
2.05 - 2.35pm	Raoul Bernegger, MA (Nonprofit-Management and Public Governance) Berlin School of Economics and Law (HWR) “The dilemma of fundraising und administration costs”
2.35 - 3.15pm	coffee break
3.15 - 4.00pm	Khue “Chloe” Hoang, MA (International Affairs) Marxe School of Public & International Affairs, Baruch College “The Role of Local Governments in Facilitating Transitions Towards A Circular New York City”
4.05 - 4.50pm	Prof Dr Dörte Busch Berlin School of Economics and Law (HWR) “People with disabilities in the light of the UN strategy in the light of the United Nations 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development (SDGs)”
6.00pm	farewell dinner