

Regenerating Education in Times of Climate Crisis

April 14th

Berlin School of Economics and Law (HWR)
Institute for Sustainability (INa)

Join us on April 14th at 4:00 pm for a panel discussion and workshop space on 'Regenerating Education in Times of Climate Crisis: New Mindsets, Tools and Methods for Climate Resilience Learning'.

We welcome all teachers, educators, and other education professionals, to discuss new mindsets and tools to learn for climate resilience.

What is the event about?

Laureline Simon (One Resilient Earth founder) and David Blunck (The Vision Works founder) will present the key findings and pedagogical resources generated through the CLARITY project.

This project will be presented with the Institute for Sustainability (INa) at the Berlin School of Economics and Law (HWR), whose mission is to integrate sustainability as a cross-cutting theme across research, teaching, and knowledge transfer.

What is CLARITY?

CLARITY is a collaboration between Lund University (Sweden), Legacy 17 (Sweden), the Real School Budapest (Hungary), Climate Creativity (Norway), The Vision Works (Germany), and One Resilient Earth (Germany).

This European research and education project supports teachers and non-formal educators to help their students shift from climate anxiety to climate resilience, connection, creativity and regeneration.

Who is this for?

All professionals interested in education to address climate change and its impacts, as well as students curious about tools to enhance emotional wellbeing while fostering collective climate action, are welcome to join!

The main presentation will be in English with German translation. For the rest of the event, we will adjust to the needs of the participants with breakout exercises and questions & answers sessions being held both in English and in German.

Where is the event taking place?

The event will take place in person at the Berlin School of Economics and Law (HWR), in the Large Senate Hall A2.04, House A.

For those who cannot attend in person, the presentation and panel discussion will also be broadcasted live online.
